HISTORY

Founded in 1923; it is a private, not-profit higher education Institution, with a nation-wide coverage, located in Colombia. Due to its philosophical, foundational and missionary principles, its juridical nature and its high social commitment, "Universidad Libre" invests its economic resources in the continuous improvement towards academic excellence and favors higher education access to all social sectors.

The academic activities of «La Universidad Libre» answer to the highest standards proposed by the quality control system of the Colombian Ministry of Education. This is evident in the permanent dialogue held by professors and students with the academic and scientific community, both nation and global wide; in the academic rigor and excellence of its programs of study, and in its commitment to education, research and social development. Academic quality is a mission of «La Universidad Libre» through which we aim our university to be «the best path to the future».
